[Correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.]

The Radical Programme---How Many Support it---What the Weaker Radicals Demand---Military Radicals, etc.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.

I have frequently, in the course of this correspondence, asserted that it was a known impossibility, constituted as this Congress now is, that any conceivable plan can be devised, as a finality, which could receive a controlling vote; and the action upon the measure of Stevens simply proves the total inability of the dominant party to dispose of the great question of pacification—nothing more and nothing less.

The programme of the section of which Stevens is the leader, confessedly demands three things, namely:

1. The removal of the President, the setting aside of the present State governments of the South, and the remodelling of the Supreme Court.

2. That no Southern territory shall be recognized as a State, until the Federal Constitution itself, guarantees to every "loyal" citizen within the Union the ballot and education, and to the negroes land besides.

3. The disfranchisement of every man at the South complicated in any manner in the late civil war, and the confiscation of his property, even to the extent of ignoring the pardoning power of the President.

This plan, in all its enormity, has the support of at least seventy-five members of the Radical representation. Those, who, fearful of the recoil of public sentiment, and the crushing power of popular re-action whenever these measures shall be attempted to be practically and forcibly put into execution, have hesitated to follow the lead of Stevens in this instance, nevertheless demand:

1st. The reconstruction of the Southern States in virtue of an act of Congress repudiating their existing status as States, and an admission of the power of Congress to regulate the right of suffrage therein.

2d. The eternal prohibition to hold even State offices of at least four-fifths of the people of those States—and

3d. The restriction (under test oaths) of representation in Congress, and all Federal offices to the negroes and interlopers of the South.

Between these plans I confess I can see but this practical difference: That the latter, from its hypocrisy and insidiousness, is the more mischievous as promising a longer delay in a final settlement. The former, through its more marked and more honest ultraism, is calculated to arouse the people to a just appreciation of the true political condition of the country, and the fact, now potent to every one, of the utter incapacity of the political tricksters in Congress to deal with the momentous questions before them.

Besides, many voted with the majority on this occasion on the ground that the bill was too lenient to the southern people. Mr. Julian, although voting in the minority, was of this opinion; but, like the old orthodox Presbyterian when told that according to even Universalists, belief a soul might be punished with fire and brimstone 5,000 years, while objecting to too great leniency, reluctantly admitted that it was "better than nothing."

The Chronicle of this morning claims Generals Grant, Sickles, Ord, Heintzelman, Sheridan, and Thomas as recent accessions to the Radical party. This wholesale appropriation of high names, besides being a sign of feebleness, is wholly referable to the "recent accession" of General Thomas as a visitor here. It was no news to be informed of his Radicalism or of that of General Sheridan. With regard to the others, the Chronicle knowingly falsifies the record.

The aristocratic "niggers" seem to be coming to grief. Last week "George Washington" was convicted for stealing a lot of old iron, and "Jas. K. Polk," for a similar freedom with other people's property. "Horace Greeley" was found guilty of murder in Charleston on Monday, and will soon expiate a life of rascality on the gallows. In New Orleans, "Andrew Jackson" was in limbo for robbing a hen roost.—Lou. Courier.

RE-ELECTED SENATOR.—In the Kentucky Legislature, on the 30th ultimo; Garrett Davis was elected United States Senator by the Democrats and Conservatives. The vote stood Davis, 78; Bristow, 41: and a few scattering votes.

Forney evidently fears that the "Copperheads" are going to secure the negro vote at the next election in Washington. He declares that the negroes cannot be fooled, &c. &c., plainly meaning that they can be.

Humphrey Marshall is at last entirely pardoned. It has taken a long time on account of his extraordinary size. He weighs about four hundred pounds avoirdupois.

A Yankee farmer is endeavoring to discover a plan to extract the beats from musical composition. He says they are worth trying for, as in some cases it only takes two to fill a measure.

Nearly all the Post-offices in Texas are in charge of females. It works so well that the males now arrive and depart every hour in the day.

A leading Washington letter-writer comes to the conclusion, that we are on the eve of a severe financial panic, and that nothing can arrest it.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

SUBSCRIPTION.—The terms of subscription have been made so low and reasonable as to place it within the reach of all who may desire it; and in view of the great interests to be served by an extensive circulation, we confidently expect the hearty co-operations of many in those sections of the country not now supplied with a good Agricultural Journal.

Creditor and Debtor.

We admit to our columns to-day, an article from "H," with the above caption, which cannot fail to make an impression. It illustrates many cases daily occurring in this State, and such cases need a remedy. Cases of this kind most surely demand compromise on the part of the creditor, and if no law can be constitutionally framed to force a compromise, public opinion should force it.

But a law framed to meet cases of this kind, of which we admit there are many, would certainly bear very unjustly upon another large class of creditors. There are many creditors who have passed through precisely the circumstances of this debtor, and there are thousands of innocent widows and children, who contributed nothing to these calamities, from whom have been swept away their negroes, and bank stock, and State bonds and Confederate bonds, who have now nothing left but the individual bonds left them. Such justice as "H" demands for all debtors, would be great injustice to some classes of debtors, and would ruin some classes of creditors. We have two unmanageable classes to deal with. There is a class of debtors who have the means to pay, and who have been but slightly injured by the war, who are determined to hold on to their property, and will not pay unless compelled. On the other hand, there are unfeeling, merciless creditors, who demand the last dollar and the last pound of flesh, no matter what becomes of others. It is those two classes that give us all the trouble.

If in the midst of our calamities we were all willing to live and let live, the spirit of compromise would become universal, and we should have peace and enough.

The idea, however, which prevails, that justice demands that creditors should lose their debts or compromise, is not well founded. All admit that the war and the subsequent action of the government are the causes of our difficulties. Now unless it can be shown that the creditor class, have been the direct instuments of forcing the war upon us, and of inducing the government to bring the consequent evils upon us, it is unjust to make them pecuniarily responsible for them. If the course of the government was unjust, in depriving us, it is alone responsible, and it would but repeat its injustice, by repudiating all debts.

Hence we have made no appeal to creditors founded upon justice. The appeal would be unjust to them. But our appeal is made to their humanity, their mercy to their suffering countrymen. Nor is the hit of our correspondent against lawyers and officials justifiable. Lawyers and officials wish to make money,—they must make money or starve or steal. None can desire this. The lawyers, as a general thing, desire to see the people relieved, but if people will sue, they cannot prevent it. Yet perhaps neither lawyers nor any other class of citizens, are doing all they can, to put a stop to sueing and litigation.

How it Was Settled.

We are sorry to learn from all parts of the State that the pressure upon debtors is likely to be very great, in some counties as many as four or five hundred writs having been issued. Especially sorry are we to learn that many writs and attachments have been sued out in this county, returnable to our next Superior court.

Suits at law are always attended with considerable expense, which adds to the burden of the debtor, which in many cases, we think, might be avoided by amicable arrangement. We have heard of a settlement in this way, which may be set forth as an example of what might be done in many other cases.

W. W. Guess, Esq., our worthy representative in the Commons, is the executor of David Warren, deceased. Our representative in Congress, Mr. Turner, is his council. The property of David Warren was sold in 1864, on a credit of twelve months—payment to be made in such money as the Sheriff would take for taxes. Mr. Green bought the land at 6,500, the value of the land is $2,000 dollars. The personal property like the land, sold at high figures, Confederate money. There are nine heirs in the estate of Mr. Warren, three of the nine live in the West.—Two weeks ago the six heirs living in Orange, met the Executor, Mr. Guess, at Mr. Turner's Office, and entered into bond authorizing the Executor to call in three disinterested men, who are to settle all questions between the Executor and the persons whose notes he holds for property purchased at the sale. The basis of the settlement being the real value of the property purchased. Mr. Guess was authorized to let Mr. Green have the land at $2,000. The heirs present also gave the Executor a bond to indemnify him against all loss in case the heirs in the West should be dissatisfied and sue him. Here is time, money, and good feeling saved. We commend their settlement as an example to all Executors, Administrators and Attorneys.

We copy the above from the last Hillsboro' Recorder, and commend it to the favorable consideration of the people of the State. This is what we have all along insisted upon, that a fair compromise between debtors and creditors, wards and guardians, and administrators, can alone meet the condition of our people. Neither stay-laws, nor repudiation, nor general sueing can realize so much to creditors, and leave debtors able to live, as compromise. In many Counties in the State, there is scarcely money enough to pay the costs on the suits now instituted.—Sentinel.

CHANGE.—We learn that Col. Stubbs, the Chief Q. M., in this State, will again make his Headquarters in this city.

PAPERS.—We are indebted to the Southern Express for late Southern papers and many other favors.

The History of North Carolina.

The Warrenton Indicator very properly and forcibly urges the necessity of a complete history of North Carolina. It is a good suggestion. There have been several attempts at a history of the State, but the history of North Carolina has never been written. Gov. Swain, if we remember correctly, has been getting material for many years, if not to perform this task himself, yet to facilitate the work when it is attempted. Time waits for no one, and if he does not get about the work himself, it is important that some one fully competent should undertake it before he passes away.

The Indicator suggests the name of Col. E. G. Haywood, of this city, as a most fit person to undertake the task. No better suggestion could be made, and we judge he could undertake no work of the kind, which would be more highly appreciated by his fellow citizens, and we are inclined to think he would gladly undertake it, if the rapidly growing demands of his profession would not prevent. Gov. Vance's name is also suggested by the same paper, but the pressure and activity of his business, would leave him no time for such labor.

At all events, let the thing be done, and done thoroughly and properly, by some fully competent hand, and done at once. The history of this State is as full of stirring incident and valuable matter for a real, live history, as any portion of the new world.

Profits of Cotton Manufacture.

We have before alluded to the large profits of Northern Cotton Manufacturers, as an inducement to Southern men, who have any surplus capital to invest, to engage in that enterprise in the South.

The Journal of Commerce points to the enormous dividends the New England manufactures received last year as proof of the groundlessness of their present clamor for higher tariff. The exhibits of the Journal of Commerce may serve another purpose, in making manifest to the people of the South the advantage of entering largely into manufactures, a branch of business in which, for reasons frequently pointed out by us, they should be far more successful than the people of the North. The companies mentioned by the Journal of Commerce are mostly engaged in the production of cotton, woolen and worsted goods, upon a large scale, as will be seen by the capital invested:

COMPANIES.	CAPITAL. Jan. 1867. Par.	PRICE. Jan. 2, '67.
Manufacturing
Androscoggin	1,000,000	100 200
Chicopee	420,000	100 255
Cocheco	1,300,000	650 710
Hamilton Woolen	600 000	100 300
Hill Mill	700,000	100 205
Lancaster	800,000	400 645
Lowell Bleaching	300,000	200 245
Manchester Print	800,000	1,000 1,555
Middlesex	750,000	100 184
Nashua	1,000,000	500 695
Naumkeag	1,200,000	100 145
Pacific	2,500,000	1,000 1,995
Salisbury	1,000,000	100 200

The value of the stock in the above companies is easily seen by comparing the par value, (the original cost,) with the value of the stocks, Jan. 2. 1867.

All of the above companies last year made two dividends. The Cocheco divided 90 per cent. for last year. The Androscoggin 45 per cent.—The Chicopee 45 per cent. The Nashua 85 per cent. The Lancaster 45 per cent., &c.

An Act Regulating the Depreciation of Confederate Currency.

The following explanatory act recently passed by the Legislature, will settle the doubts in regard to the meaning of the act "to establish a scale of depreciation of Confederate currency."

Therefore, to prevent all further doubts, and to prevent all further trouble,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the scale of depreciation of Confederate currency, established by the above entitled act, shall be construed to apply to debts therein mentioned at the date of contracting the same, and not at the time the said debts become due.

Be it further enacted, That all laws and clauses of laws, conflicting with this act be, and the same are hereby repealed.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—You have lately published many excerpts, from the Standard, of former days—say from the 4th of March, 1864.

These extracts are exceedingly refreshing and humorous, and you no doubt, intended them as such. You write (as all Editors should do) for the instruction and amusement of your readers. These precious excerpts are a source of infinite amusement to m ny in this community, who have heretofore taken the Standard. But they are particularly so at this time, to those who now read that paper, as I do. But to show the Ex. P. G. up more conspicuously, and thereby increase the amusement of the loyal citizens, (black and white, of course) I call your attention to the following extract from the first message of the Ex. P. G. (then P. G.) to the late State Convention, to wit: "She (North Carolina) entered the rebellion a slaveholding State, and she emerged from it a non-slaveholding State. In other respects, so far as her rights as a State are concerned, she has undergone no change."

If this is not a square up admission of our rights as a State, I cannot tell what would be. But, unfortunately, our worthy and amiable Ex. P. G. was not elected Governor of the "District of North Carolina"—"et hinc illæ lacryma."—Any one, even the most obtuse loyalist of the African race, can now account for the "milk in the cocoanut." The super-excellent extract is dated on the 3rd of Oct. 1865. The author of this is, and ever has been, a Union man.

If the Ex. P. G. desires any further information, please communicate to him the fact that I have the papers, endorsed by him, attesting my unmistakable Unionism or loyalty. S.

P. S. Bad plan for politicians to commit themselves in writing. Since the above was written, I observe an editorial, in the Sentinel, in which the same extract is quoted. Nevertheless, I send this communication. S.

DIALOGUE AT ————, N. C.

Cr.—I have called to see you this morning, concerning claims which I hold against you and your brother's widow.

Dr.—I hope sir, you are prepared to make me a generous proposal. A reasonable one within the narrow limits of the means I possess, shall sir, be acceptable.

Cr.—What do you mean? Is it a fact, that the moral character of one, of whom I had so exalted an opinion, has been demoralized by laws enacted for the benefit of thieves, by a set of insolvent villains who, in comparison to our Northern enemies, are as black is to white?

Dr.—I suppose you allude to the stay-law. I hope you will not yield to passion and get angry. I am no stay-law man. I never thought that a remedy for the present evils. But I am a law-abiding man, and had concluded to sell a piece of my land and a colt I had given to my son, so as to enable me to meet my tenths at March term.

Cr.—Your tenth! When you signed your name to this paper, a dollar was a dollar. I have, with self-denial and strict economy, indulged you for seven years, and now, when cotton is worth twenty-five, and you have had time to make a crop, the currency depreciated as it is, I am told about the tenth! The lawyers tell me sir, the Supreme Court will set aside your stay-law, and I shall receive gold for every dollar of it.

Dr.—When I signed that paper, a nigger was a nigger; capital was abundant and the accruing interest ample compensation for its use.—The slaves I held were subject to execution before my small homestead could be touched, and that was a condition of the obligation. If I had no niggers you would not have had these bonds. My brother and myself were called from our families and homes to join in defence of our country. His bones are left on the soil of the conquerors. His widow and orphans draw no pension. They look only to me for sustenance. During my absence I felt great concern about these debts; and my wife wrote me letters at different times, consoling me that she had gathered up out of the wasting substance I had left, enough Bank notes, Treasury notes and Confederate money to satisfy all my indebtedness. The shadow is here but the substance is gone. Four years of the hardest service and exposure possible for man to endure, with all the means I possessed forever, lost, with nothing left me but the proceeds of my own labor. Would you not be satisfied to get a new obligation, well secured, for one-half the amount at the commencement of the war?

Cr.—Good day sir. If you are that kind of a man, I shall instruct my lawyer to make the most of it.

Drs. Soliloquy.—Had not the Convention that abolished slavery, the same right to abolish mulery, and horsery, and debtry? Was it not a great oversight in them to destroy the values received for these debts, and have the obligations in full force. A man cannot see without eyes or hear without ears. Nor can he pay without the wherewith. The debtor is the last man to blame or punished for his present situation. He cannot be regarded nor should he be treated as a criminal. The country has undergone a terrible revolution. The mighty engines of thunder, fire and sword have swept through the land—a leveling process has been aimed at. Former obligations are annulled and new responsibilities incurred. New soundings should be taken, and the best that can be done for the greatest number should be done, regarding solely the new situation. Why should men holding the bonds of individuals not share a portion of the great havoc; $5,000 now affords better living than four times that amount did when slavery existed.

I must do the best I can, and try to comply with the laws of the country. But it is a very hard case. That man never went to the war.—His chances for a living without that claim, are superior to mine, and if he collects the full amount of all his bonds out of the remnant that is left, in this section he will be "monarch of all he surveys." It is true, I signed that obligation, but as the case is, I do not feel that I am under moral obligation to turn my wife and children out of doors without food, to pay the full amount of it, contracted as it was, and in existence under circumstances so different, and conditions so changed from the present. Mortals can make no contracts unconditional. It not expressed, they are implied.

No obligation, prospective, can be so binding as to be beyond the possibility of release. Gabriel may sound his trumpet, other contingences are liable to occur. I hope the Legislature will take this matter earnestly under consideration, and devise some fair and equitable method of arrangement. All this cry of wolf, about, repudiation is nonsense. The people want justice, only justice. The debtor as well as the creditor needs procection in this extraordinary situation. They cannot understand how a Constitution that failed to protect them in what it was pledged to do, is competent to force them to do an unjust, unwise and impolitic thing.—A Constitution that took from them the means it had guaranteed to them, should not coerce them to pay for the same. It is in the power of the Legislature to prepare the creditor to accept of a compromise. Different opinions exist as to the amount; generally about one half, allowing no interest during the war. An understanding upon this subject is more essential at this time than any other legislation. Suits are innumerable. The costs alone are likely to amount to a sum greater than all our taxes combined. Deliver the people from the insatiate greed of lawyers and officials. I must go. The sow is in the garden. H.

For the Sentinel.

RALEIGH, Feb. 2nd, 1867.

To the Editors of the Sentinel:—Dear Sirs.—In the discussion which transpired the other day in the House of Commons, on the bill to "abolish imprisonment for debt," I am reported as opposed to the bill. The bill under discussion proposed to abolish the writ of capias ad respondendum in actions of covenant, debt &c., requiring the Sheriff to take bail. This would enable a defendant worth ten thousand dollars and sued for one hundred dollars, to leave the State with all his property, and no security for his creditors. My position was that the creditor should have some security, and that if at any time before execution the plaintiff would make affidavit before the clerk of the court from which the original process issued that the defendant was about to abscond, or leave the State, then he should have the benefit of the process in rem or attachment, returnable to the same court to which the original process was returnable. An amendment was subsequently offered by Mr. Davis, of Franklin, providing in this event for a capias ad respondendum requiring the sheriff to take bail, and for this I voted, as appears in your reports. In order that my true position may not be misunderstood, please do me the favor to publish the foregoing,

Yours, &c.,

J. M. LONG.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

THREE PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS.

FIRST.—Nothing is so uncertain as Life.

SECOND.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your life, which is not immediate.

THIRD.—The only immediate provision is that provided by Life Insurance.

A FEW WORDS TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

I advertised in the early part of the season that I would sell goods as cheap, as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, Cost Houses not excepted—as cheap as he who had paid for his goods, or ever intended to pay for them. And I here take the privilege to say, that I think my customers will bear me out when I say, I have done so in almost every instance.

I told the people to "come to Creech's" to buy their goods—they have come, and they are still coming—and I think they will pardon me when I say they have shown their good judgment.

I now tell them to "come to Creech's" to buy their goods.

I don't advertise my goods at New York Cost.—I intend to represent my goods to you in a fair and equitable way, and sell them fully as cheap as any so-called Cost House. And I here say to the so-called cost gentlemen, if they paid what they charge their customers for goods, I advise them to go back to the License man and surrender their license. Go back to your Land-lords and ask them to take back your houses,—and proclaim to the world that you have missed your calling, and are not fit for merchants.

I compromised my debts that I owed North before the war, by paying them at one hundred cents in the dollar.

Let them start their opposition—let them all talk. But "come to Creech's," to buy your goods. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, ready and willing at all times to serve you right.

For the Sentinel.

From the Country.

Editors of the Sentinel: Gentlemen—People who read the papers regularly, do feel sometimes as if a talk with some editor was a matter of necessity, by way of exchange of ideas sometimes, and sometimes by way of acknowledgment for pleasure and benefit derived. Just now I feel myself considerably your debtor; first, for your editorial of the 25th inst., in regard to our University, in particular, and other schools of learning in general, and the way in which we are spoiling our children at home; and second, for the very sensible communication of "Senex," which I read aloud to a select circle with immense applause.

I don't know when I have been more pleased, gentlemen, than by your plain talk about education. I, for one, felt condemned, and resolving at once to turn over a new leaf in my domestic administration, refused, that very evening, with exemplary firmness, to allow my youngest boy more than three lumps of sugar in his tea.

I venture to say, there is not a teacher in the country who does not secretly thank you for that pointed talk to parents. I wish you would give the public just such a vigorous lecture, free gratis, every week. There are topics in abundance. "Senex" writes well, and says the truth itself. If more old men (and women) could make their voices heard these days, and the young men (and women) were a little, just a little less conspicuous and more modest, what a blessing it would be to our late beloved country—so-called.

Excuse an old woman's garrulity, but I see your merchants are selling off at cost, or thereabouts. Allow me to suggest to them the policy, of annexing the prices of some of their goods in their advertisements. We country people would like to know just how far a little money will go. Say, I have twenty dollars to invest in calico, thread or shirting. I have two or three neighbors also amiably disposed to the same amount. We read the Sentinel of course Everybody does. We read Mr. Tucker's announcement with deep emotion. We read Mr. Cooke's card,—and, per contra, Mr. Creech's.—Our imaginations became excited with the hope of enriching ourselves, one way or another, among them. When th–i–r–s fall out, you know, we honest people, &c., &c., &c. Well now, to be serious, we might often send snug little commissions to your city, if we had some guide as to prices. What is good calico, for instance? Unless there is a decided reduction, I hold that it would not be fair to our home merchants to send what little money we have abroad. But the melancholy fact that it is so little, makes us nervous about prices. Isn't it astonishing how the ladies will buy? They will,—they will,—Heaven bless them. There is always something needed in a family you know. Our experience in the war has made us feverish on the subject of laying in supplies. I have positively done several merchants in my neighborhood good service, by hinting obscurely to certain impressible ladies, that it would be as well to have a good stock of shirting and sheeting on hand,—that "I should not be surprised if another war"—&c., with other deep reflections of the like nature. This very week I sent three ladies out buying up all the sewing cotton to be had, by telling them I had no doubt the price would soon rise, the "Sea Island" crop being short. It is a fact, I have not been able to get a "No. 60 Coats'" since. What does Mr. Rosenbaum ask for cotton?

You perceive, I am not concerned as to the price of dress goods, a suit of sackcloth turned up with ashes, is most appropriate for the times, and would certainly suit my complexion best.

AN INVALUABLE DISCOVERY,

BY WHICH

Water can be Turned into Money.

Truly has it been said, "That the riches of this world, lie buried in the bowels of the earth." The precious metals that are daily taken from thence, readily procure all the luxuries and comforts—save, the great boon to the sick, Health—without which, life is a burden, and the millions of the Rothchilds' would fail to secure.

To females suffering from Leucorrhœa, (or Whites, as it is commonly called,) I, as a Physician of many years experience, would say, that you need not longer endure a miserable life of pains, aches and general debility, or weakness, the consequence of this deplorable disease.

All Physicians, of modern teaching, will admit the great difficulties in arresting this destroyer of health, for various reasons unnecessary to mention. Patients suffering therefrom will as readily agree, that medicines, however carefully prepared and used fail, in most instances, to afford relief; and in many, from long continuance, produce debility, thereby increasing the malady they were expected to relieve.

Deeming it a great privilege to be a public benefactor, and add to the comforts of the afflicted, by placing before them means of relief, I here give the history of a few cases of great interest that have fallen under my professional care.

Mrs. ———, a lady of the highest standing in the city of Charlotte, N. C., had been an incessant sufferer from Leucorrhœa for three years. Her cheeks were blanched, her skin always cold and almost transparent—in fact she seemed not to have a red corpuscle in her body. So weak was she, that it was with great difficulty she could ascend a flight of stairs, without feeling faint and exhausted. Palpitation of the heart, head-ache, and a dizziness in the head, besides excruciating pains in the back, together with a bearing-down sensation in the region of the womb, were constant and alarming. Notwithstanding there were but symptoms of extreme debility, induced or kept up by the never ceasing drain from her system. In this condition, every means at my command was used for her relief. Remedy after remedy was tried. Every means recommended by our modern authors proved worthless in her case. Hearing of the case of a servant, whom I had formerly treated, (belonging to Mr. Cross,) having been very much benefitted by this mineral water, I resolved, (without further inquiry,) as the last resort, to recommend to her its use. Anxious to be restored once more to health, she readily acceded to my proposition, and visited this well daily. Soon improvement was visible, and in the short space of three months her health was entirely restored. A living monument to the great curative virtues of this water.

The next case of great interest is that of the servant woman already spoken of. Seven years previous to the discovery of this well, Mr. Cross engaged my services in the care of this woman. I made most careful examination and searched out all of the particulars of her history. She had suffered for 18 years with Leucorrhœa, and being sorely afflicted therefrom, it was universally known in our community, that she was the martyr of the town. I found her with all of the distressing symptoms attending this malady, and could only afford her temporary relief. Time passed on, and still her afflictions did not abate. She abandoned all hope of recovery, and resolved to take no medicines, but to resign herself to the fate which seemed to await her. Her master just then having discovered this well, advised that she should drink freely of the water, as it might be of some benefit to her. Like a drowning man catching at straw, she tried it, and improvement was soon perceptible. Perseverance was crowned with success, and this day she is a strong and healthy woman, and can be seen at the residence of her former master, and will take great pleasure in relating, in detail, to any visitors, the history of her case.

Many other cases known to us, of equal interest, have been cured, and others are being daily benefitted.

It is to be regretted that the pecuniary embarrassments incident to the late war precludes the idea of Mr. Cross' fitting up this valuable property, as a resort for invalids. Under these circumstances, the owner (Mr. George Cross, of Charlotte, N. C.,) is willing to dispose of his property at the very reasonable price of $40,000 in U. S. currency, and will communicate with any one either by letter or personally.

The plantation of 100 acres of fine and productive land is situated within one and a half miles of the city of Charlotte, N. C., immediately on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. A fine residence, with modern improvements and conveniences, together with all necessary buildings attached, have just been completed, and to capitalists seeking investments no finer inducements could be offered.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron (Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)	36.80
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE; SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions.

Will be sold at the same time, two good yoke of Oxen, one Log Cart, a splendid pair of Mules, one two-horse Wagon and Harness, a superior lot of Hogs, of improved stock, and many other articles too numerous to mention, including one sett Blacksmith tools.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Etna Life Co., in loosing $25.000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4.000.000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on

HILLSBORO' MILITARY ACADEMY.

THIS well known and popular Institution is once more in successful operation, and is prepared for the reception of Cadets at any time.—It is under the direction of a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia
MILITARY INSTITUTE,

and a colleague of

STONEWALL JACKSON.

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Lettres.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army.

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished Graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

Professor of Latin, French, Ethics and Belles Lettres, to be appointed shortly.

Surgeons Drs. E. & W. S. STRUDWICK.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.
